

Course Material Release for Program Assessment

The purpose of this release is to grant San Diego State University (hereafter SDSU) and its representatives my permission to use materials created by me as part of the following course for program assessment purposes.

I authorize SDSU to remove all identifying personal information from these materials and thereafter to share these materials print and/or digital form within and beyond the university. While the purpose of this sharing is to facilitate program assessment and university accreditation, I understand and approve that such use could also be viewed as non-commercial advertisement regarding the student capacities and abilities that SDSU strives to develop and promote through its various academic programs.

I understand that, regardless of signing this release, I retain ownership and copyright of these materials based on SDSU's general principle that the results of scholarship and creative work shall be the property of those who originate them, and who therefore have the right of copyright or final disposition of these materials. Such property rights, however, shall be defined in relation to all of the resources contributed by persons, institutions, and agencies involved in the scholarship and development of the creative work. I understand that these principles are well-established and outlined in the SDSU Policy File

Based on my completion of the information below, I agree to the terms of the release as described above and confirm that I am at least 18 years of age.

Semester
Course Number and Title:
Instructor:
Full Legal Name:
Red ID:
Date:	